

Wissenswertes zu Science Direct

The screenshot shows the ScienceDirect website. At the top left is the ScienceDirect logo. To the right are links for 'Journals & Books', 'Register', and 'Sign in', along with a link for 'You have institutional access'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'Search for peer-reviewed journals, articles, book chapters and open access content.' The search bar contains several input fields: 'Keywords', 'Author name', 'Journal/book title', 'Volume', 'Issue', and 'Pages', followed by a search icon and the text 'Advanced search'. Below the search bar is a dark blue banner with the text 'Never lose track of an interesting article' and 'Your Reading History will remember what you've read, so you don't have to.' A blue button with the text 'Register for free >' is positioned on the left side of the banner. Below the banner is a white section with the text 'Explore scientific, technical, and medical research on ScienceDirect' and a list of categories: 'Physical Sciences and Engineering', 'Life Sciences', 'Health Sciences', and 'Social Sciences and Humanities'.

Highlights

- Targets are powerful governance instrument for making the economy more circular.
- There are several circular economy targets but they are limited to a few discrete cases.
- Circular economy strategies allow identifying and systematising new and applied targets.
- New targets can better reflect the multifaceted reality of a circular economy despite possible trade-offs, synergies, and complementarities.
